

Valencio Hoffman

- PERFECTIONIST -

Hey there! I am Valencio Hoffman and I am a tools/game programmer from the Netherlands. I currently study at Breda University of Applied Sciences (formerly known as NHTV) as a games programmer. I am expected to graduate July 2021.

My passion lies at working on tools to make everybody's life better. I am also really interested in AI programming. I am looking forward to learn, gain experience and contributing my best while working in a leading game studio environment.
